QUAKE DESTRUCTION — This is the view of Casma, a city 30 miles south of Chimbote, Peru, showing the devastation caused by Sunday's killer earthquake. Tons of relief supplies were being airlifted into Peru today as officials still feared the death toll may climb to 30,000. (AP Wirephoto via radio from Lima)

Rafferty Says Runoff Expected, Likes Vote

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Dr. Max Rafferty was forced into a November runoff election with his former chief deputy, William Riles, today as additional returns were counted from Tuesday's primary.

Rafferty said "we were expecting a runoff" because of the large field of nine candidates.

With 84.4 per cent of the vote counted, Rafferty led 43.3 per cent in 23.3 per cent for Riles and 12.4 per cent for Julian Nava, member of the Los Angeles Board of Education. Rafferty needed more than 50 per cent of the total vote to win outright in the primary.

Rafferty, in a telephone interview from his Sacramento office, said he planned to campaign more vigorously than in 1966.

MARIN'S BUDGET UNVEILED TODAY

An illustrated story on next page's proposed $30,000,000 county budget, which would raise property taxes 1 cent per $100 assessed valuation, appears today on page 20.

Marin County Supervisors accepted the proposed budget for next Tuesday and will begin consideration of individual department needs on June 15.

Fresno Vote Remains In Computer

FRESNO (UPI)—The age of the computer may have dawned on the rest of the world some time ago, but in Fresno it has yet to arrive at least as far as vote counting is concerned.

The county has a computer system capable of tabulating in less than three hours the 48,000 vote cast in Tuesday's primary election, but this morning at 11:30 a.m. the vote counting is still in progress.

The problem is not with the computer but with its programming, which was not completed by the time election day rolled around.

County Controller Maurice Usher said a systems analyst, Murray Blum, of the Honeywell Corp. in Sacramento, was being brought in today to help the regular programmer finish the job.

Work has been going on around the clock for the past two days, but Usher's office said it will be 3 p.m. today at the earliest before ballots can be counted.

The county uses a punch card system which would make it almost impossible to count the votes by hand.

Many of the candidates waiting to learn their fate in the election seem to be taking the difficulty in stride but several were less charitable.

Fresno assemblyman George Zornitov, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for the 16th District Senate post, said the county board of supervisors, Usher and the county's administrative officer should be made to explain why the system was not ready.

Supervisor John Krebs, who was not running for reelection, called for an investigation and termed the failure "intolerable."

Supplies Are Airlifted Into Peru

LIMA (UPI)—Tons of relief supplies for earthquake survivors were flown into Peru today from the United States and a half dozen other nations.

A witness said how one entire town simply "disappeared" in a mass of mud.

A new tremor Wednesday night—three days after the killer quake struck—sent thousands of jittery residents streaming into the streets of Lima, where the quake were not expected.

A big C-130 transport plane of the U.S. Air Force loaded with relief supplies was flying in from the Panama Canal Zone, it carried hundreds of gallons of fuel for helicopters to be used for relief flights in the devastated Huary 1's Valley where destruction was so heavy that authorities feared 20,000 people may have been killed.

Around 10 a.m. a party of a circus, told how events occurred Sunday at the town of Yungay, a village he could see from his vantage point at Chimbote.

The performance had not yet begun, he said. "The earth began to shake and we all ran out of the tent."

"Then we saw a black mass of mud come down on the city. Yungay disappeared from our view. A great cloud of dust went up."

"We saw scores of people run into the plaza of Yungay to save themselves but they were buried by the mud."

The new tremor, just after 11 p.m., lasted an seconds—though time for occupants of the lower floors of homes and apartments to reach the streets, many in pajamas.

Afterwards following Sunday's quake shook the area frequently Monday and Tuesday but had subsided until the new quake Wednesday night.

The Health Ministry reported typhoid, apparently from contaminated drinking water, in Huaraz, Huarabamba and Yungay.

Helicopters airlifted 400 injured persons Wednesday from Huaraz, in the Andes 100 miles northwest of Lima, but a priest complained by radio they were being brought back fast enough. Hunger was reported severe in neighboring villages.

(The Associated Press, meanwhile, reported that Peruvian army engineers at Huaraz have decided to set fire to the city because of health dangers from decomposing bodies. The information was received at Lima from an American missionary reporting by radio radio.)

A Health Ministry spokesman said "This is likely so. So far there have been few supplies in relation to the need."

Paratroopers, assisted by Indian laborers finally cleared a 1,000 foot landing strip at Huaraz late Wednesday and a helicopter landed with fuel for helicopters operating there.

Because efforts were being coordinated from Chimbote, a port city north of Huaraz also had to be the quake. U.S. Hercules transport planes from there, Peru's Panair, Zane, Brazilian and Argentine aircraft and the Peruvian navy's helicopter were operating under the direction of the Peruvian air force.

Promotion Possible For Judge

If the Northwest Judicial District in West Marin is eliminated, or recommended again this year by the county administrator, Justice Court Judge David R. Bary could become the next municipal court judge.

This possibility seemed today as County Counsel Douglas J. Mahoney delved into the various legal possibilities posed by the two vacancies that will occur on the municipal court bench.

First opening will come in September when Judge Hester W. Roth resigns. The second opening will come at the end of this year when Judge Alvin H. Galt resigns. He did not seek reelection.

Bary said that moving he would go along with the abolition of the municipal court and take the municipal court post on one condition: a branch of municipal court is maintained at Point Reyes Station.

Bary has been an attorney for 15 years and justice court judge in Point Reyes Station 11 years. He has been a member of the county bar since 1955.

He said he would not be a municipal court judge if the county clerk, he would have to go into more detail in re-examining the legal question.

Two more trustees of the Sausalito School District, Nathaniel Johnson and James S. Muldon, have resigned from the board, making it necessary to call a special election to fill the vacant seats.

Johnson, who has been a trustee since 1964, and Muldon, who has been a trustee since 1966, both of Sausalito, who ran for board posts in the recent election.

The three resignations came less than 48 hours after the district's two other trustees, David E. Freeman and Martin Freeman-Smith, were recalled by voters. They will be replaced by voters in a special election to be held in the district.

existing when Nixon took office in 1969.

The President said only indirectly with one factor that has helped criticism of his policy—namely that the South Vietnamese will continue to expand their operations in Cambodia and eventually will den the war.

Discussions with the South government indicate their objective is the security of their own country, Nixon said, and added:

"Their activity in Cambodia is the future—after the withdrawal from the southern zone has not been determined by the actions of the enemy."

Nixon noted another factor: the South's unwillingness to fight for meaningful negotiations. "The door to a negotiated peace remains wide open," he said. "Every offer we have made at the conference table, publicly or privately, I have with realism."

He copied this with a warning that if North Vietnam increases its attacks he will take strong and effective measures to deal with this situation.
